Sustainable Energy Project Competition 2018

Does your community have an idea for a sustainable energy project that could make a difference to your area?

Apply to the Falck Renewables Sustainable Energy Project Competition for a chance to win up to £5,000 to help make your project a reality.

The applications will be judged by a panel made up of representatives from Falck Renewables and Scottish Renewables.

Winners will be announced at Falck Renewables Awards Dinner, Stirling, Tuesday 20 November 2018.

Apply before 13 November 2018 to compete for financial support!

Up to 80% of the cost of the winning project (for a max of £5,000) will be covered by Falck Renewables.
